

Public Interest Discount Application | $1,795 Tuition

Discounted tuition for July 2026 courses only available until March 31, 2026

CERTIFICATION & QUALIFICATION

Eligible students must (1) graduate in winter 2025 or spring 2026; (2) sit for the July 2026 bar exam; and (3) provide adequate employment verification. If not employed, students must provide documentation of a commitment to work in the public interest sector after graduation.

Applications must be received no later than March 31, 2026, at 5:00 P.M. CT. Once approved, the credit card provided will be charged a $295 non-refundable payment to secure the discounted tuition. Payment in full will be charged on April 1, 2026, for the July 2026 bar exam. Failure to meet these deadlines may result in the public interest scholarship award being removed from the student's account. All refunds and cancellation policies will apply.

- i. Employed Students: Submit employment verification or acceptance of an offer for employment within the public interest sector along with this form. Please include a brief description of the position and salary. Note that judicial clerkships may require additional information.
- ii. Unemployed Students: Provide a brief description of your post-graduation plans and a resume demonstrating your ongoing commitment to work in the public interest sector as established by one of the following:
 - a. Acceptance into an official, law school-sponsored public interest scholarship program;
 - b. Acceptance into an official, non-university public interest fellowship or program; or
 - c. Record of public interest work throughout law school.

I, _____, affirm that I have (1) accepted, or intend to accept, a public interest employment position at _____, OR demonstrated an ongoing commitment to work in the public interest sector as per one or more of the requirements referenced above. I further certify that neither the above organization or office, nor another law firm or organization, is paying for my bar review course or providing me with any stipend for bar review. I also affirm that if my post-graduation plans change such that I decide not to seek employment in the public interest sector, I will notify Themis Bar Review and renounce this award. I understand that the granting of this award is within the sole discretion of Themis. Submit completed form to PINT@themisbar.com or info@themisbar.com.

STUDENT AGREES TO THE FOLLOWING:

- To qualify under the terms of this Enrollment Agreement, Student must provide a valid credit card on the reverse side.
- Prior to granting course access, Student may transfer to another jurisdiction during the same bar exam administration, or to the next scheduled bar exam immediately following the current enrollment in the same jurisdiction, with no transfer fee.
- Upon receipt of this form, Student authorizes Themis to charge the credit card provided non-refundable $295 payment toward the Themis Bar Review course specified on the reverse side. To maintain reservation of the public interest scholarship tuition, Student also authorizes Themis to automatically charge the credit card provided for the subsequent payment(s) beyond the initial amount on the dates specified in the Payment Schedule section on reverse side. Student understands that $295 is considered a non-refundable payment.
- Student may cancel enrollment in the Themis Bar Review course at any time. If Student cancels before the availability of online bar review course content, Student is entitled to a refund, less any non-refundable payment, shipping fees, and applicable taxes. Non-refundable payments include (where applicable): $295 registration fee; $500 Technology Package; $500 Access Fee for activation of the UWorld MBE® QBank; Gift Card Value: If a bonus gift card has been issued upon enrollment, Student's payment will be applied to offset the face value of the gift card. In the event that Student directed Themis Bar Review to bill their employer and were issued an iPad before the payment is processed, cancellation of the course enrollment will require return of the unopened device at Student's expense or payment of $500 plus shipping costs and any applicable sales tax. In the event that a third party made payment for the bar review course, that third party will be entitled to any refund issued.
- Refund requests must be made in writing to info@themisbar.com. Course materials must be returned at Student's expense and received by Themis Bar Review before any refund due will be processed. Return materials to: Themis Bar Review, 320 West Ohio Street, Suite 4W, Chicago, IL 60654. No refunds will be issued after availability of online bar review course content.
- Themis now offers additional financing options with Affirm so Student can pay over time. If Student chooses to take advantage of this option, Student must log in at www.themisbar.com, proceed to the "Make Payment" page for the course Student would like to finance, choose "Other Amount", and pay the amount Student does not want to finance. Once that payment is complete, Student should navigate back to the same "Make a Payment" page for the same course and select "Buy now, pay later with Affirm." This will allow Student to finance the remaining balance over the course of several months.
- 2026 Themis Bar Review courses are available in all states EXCEPT: DE (coming July 2026), LA, and MS. All 2026 bar review courses include free access to UWorld's MBE QBank incorporated within the Themis course. This scholarship cannot be assigned or combined with any other payment incentives, discounts, credits, or Themis awards. Your balance due will reflect discounted tuition, plus $40 domestic shipping and any applicable taxes. Additional shipping costs will apply for expedited or international shipping. Account balance available at www.themisbar.com.
